

REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER -2025

Mr Mohamad Azharudin - Former Indian Cricket team captain graced the Human Aid Society event at Baramulla.

08th Sept 2025: Legendary former Indian cricket captain and globally renowned batsman Mr. Mohammad Azharuddin visited Baramulla today to participate in a Cricket Coaching and Batting Skills Camp organized by Human Aid Society in collaboration with the Indian Army and District Sports Council. The camp was expertly conducted under the supervision of renowned sports physician Dr. Aijaz Ashai.

Before arriving at the stadium, Mr. Azharuddin paid tribute at the Khawaja Bagh Memorial, honouring the martyrs who laid down their lives in the service of the Nation. He also met with officers and personnel of the 46 RR and 19 Artillery Division, praising their dedication and service.

At General Bipan Rawath Stadium, Baramulla, Mr. Azharuddin received a grand welcome from the public, youth cricketers, and local cricket enthusiasts. He was personally greeted by distinguished guests:

Deputy Commissioner Baramulla, Mr. Minga Shirpa (Guest of Honour) expressed: Baramulla is a historic and peaceful district where people are cooperative and always ready to support initiatives promoting sports and community welfare.

Mr. Azharuddin expressed: The work of Human Aid Society is truly commendable. It not only supports communities but also guides youth toward a brighter future. I am always ready to support the mission of this organization and contribute in every possible way."

Mr. Azharuddin spent about an hour interacting with the public and cricket enthusiasts in the General Bipan Rawath Indoor Stadium. He then conducted a two-hour coaching session at the All-Weather Nets, providing guidance to under-19 cricketers to help them excel nationally and internationally.

Awards and Recognitions:

Appreciation awards were presented by Mr. Mohammad Azharuddin to coordinators, coaches, and program partners for their outstanding service in making the camp a success:

Mr. Azharuddin and Dr. Aijaz Ashai, accompanied by the Chairman of Human Aid Society, visited the Chinar YUVA Centre, where they appreciated the skills of young Kashmiri boys and girls and encouraged the development of their talent.

On this occasion, a remarkable environmentalist was also honoured a 67-year-old senior Mr Ab Hadi Qurashi of Yamlar Bala Tehsil Zachaldara, who planted thousands of trees on hundreds of kanals of land and transformed his small village into a smoke-free and polythene-free community. Since childhood, he has been working to protect the environment. On this occasion, globally renowned personality Mr. Mohammad Azharuddin, on behalf of Human Aid Society, presented him with an Award of Appreciation Certificate and a Kashmiri shawl, honouring his dedication and spirit.

The public warmly appreciated this recognition, stating that Human Aid Society always encourages and motivates those who serve selflessly.

The visit concluded.

Mr. Azharuddin visited the Human Aid Society office and interacted with members volunteers, and its sponsors orphan children.

A PowerPoint presentation highlighted the organization's three decades of social service. He was presented with a handcrafted Kashmiri souvenir showcasing local arts and woodcarving. He praised Kashmir's artistic heritage and acknowledged the organization's remarkable work.

Mr. Azharuddin further stated:

Human Aid Society is a beacon of hope for communities and a guide for youth to achieve a better future. I remain committed to supporting their mission and will always prioritize contributing to their initiatives.

Human Aid Society, in Collaboration with Muslim Aid Australia (MAA) Launches Monthly Grocery Support Program for Widows

23rd Sept 2025: Human Aid Society, with the financial support of its long-term international funding partner Muslim Aid Australia (MAA), has launched its Monthly Grocery Support Program aimed at assisting 100 widows for one full year (August 2025 – July 2026).

The inaugural program was held at Human Aid Society's Central Office, Baramulla, where the beneficiaries, identified from District Baramulla and adjoining areas, were selected so they could conveniently collect their monthly grocery kits throughout the year.

Although the program commenced later than scheduled due to delays in fund transfer, the inaugural distribution successfully provided 46 widows with essential grocery items along with 2 kgs of roasted frozen chicken each, ensuring that their children could enjoy nutritious and tasty meals without feeling deprived compared to others.

The inauguration was attended by Human Aid Society's executive members as well as Mr. Rasiq Masood, a USA-based Kashmiri NRI from Srinagar. He appreciated the collaboration between Muslim Aid Australia and Human Aid Society Kashmir, commending the Society's commitment to transparency and accountability. On this occasion, Human Aid Society's Chairman, Patron, Vice Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, and executive members also held a separate meeting with Mr. Masood, where they discussed the daily life challenges faced by the widowed beneficiaries and other needy people.

Mr. Masood further visited the Society's established Old Age Home and its Sustainable Affordable Farming Entrepreneurship Project, (SAFE) where he highly praised the initiatives and acknowledged the organisation's dedication to the welfare of marginalized communities.

This program marks an important milestone in Human Aid Society's ongoing mission to improve the living conditions of widows, orphans, and underprivileged families across Jammu & Kashmir.
