HAS Jammu DeskA. Felicitation of Skilled Aspirants with Training Certificates

Human Aid Society (HAS) felicitated 15 girls from Khalsa Colony, Jammu, with their course training certificates after they completed their cutting and tailoring skill training under HAS's Vocational Training Cum Entrepreneurship Development Scheme (VTEDS), as part of the ARNIMAL Women Empowerment Initiative 2024–2025.

The event was graced by notable dignitaries, including the former Deputy Commissioner of Baramulla, Mr. Ghulam Ahmed Khwaja; ex-Superintendent of J&K Police, Mr. Ghulam Mohin-u-din Andrabi; Chairman of Human Aid Society, Bashir Ah Mir; and Treasurer cum Executive Member of HAS, Haji Ghulam-u-din Wani. In his address, the Former DC, Mr. Ghulam Ahmad Khwaja, stated that knowledge and skill are powerful tools to overcome poverty.

The Chairman of the organization informed the gathering about the various ongoing programs and projects run by HAS throughout the year for the upliftment of marginalized people, regardless of caste, creed, colour, region, or religion. He also mentioned that Human Aid Society plans to expand its program to Jammu in the future, recognizing the region's potential in terms of raw material availability and market opportunities.

The parents of the trainees expressed their gratitude to Human Aid Society for providing valuable training to their daughters, which has created employment opportunities for them.
