

REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF MARCH -2025

From Compassion to Celebration GOC Baramulla Major General Manoj Joshi VSM concludes Human Aid Society's Ramadan mission spreading Eid smiles to thousands.

Baramulla - 19th March 2026.

On the blessed occasion of Eid-ul-Fitr, when the Muslim Ummah celebrates the completion of the holy month of Ramadan, Human Aid Society once again demonstrated its unwavering commitment to humanitarian service.

During the holy month of Ramadan, the organization extended vital support to 2350 families by distributing food kits and other essential items, helping them observe the month with dignity and ease. This large-scale humanitarian initiative was formally kick-started from Makkah Masjid Jammu by the then Chief Minister of Jammu & Kashmir, Jenab Dr Farooq Abdullah sab.

On 31st March 2026, concluding ceremony of this impactful program was held in Baramulla, where Major General Manoj Joshi VSM General Officer Commanding (GOC) Baramulla, presided over the event, marking the successful culmination of the Ramadan relief drive while Lt Coln Mr. Jitesh Co Satta battery graced the occasion as the Guest of Honor.

In addition, to ensure that the joy of Eid reaches every child, the organization, in collaboration with its international funding partner MAA (Muslim Aid Australia) and the Indian Army, distributed sweets, bread, chicken, and toys among more than 350 orphaned and underprivileged children, enabling team to celebrate Eid with happiness and dignity.

On the occasion, Chairman Bashir Ahmad Mir expressed heartfelt gratitude to all stakeholders, including Army officials, volunteers, and the MAA fund partner, stating that their collective efforts made it possible to bring smiles to the faces of those in need. The GOC Baramulla appreciated the commendable work of Human Aid Society and emphasized that such initiatives strengthen the spirit of compassion, unity, and social responsibility in society.

Human Aid Society, distributed stationery, uniforms, and other educational supplies to around 80 poor and orphaned children. This organization, working from last 29 years in education and welfare, invited Baramulla's new Deputy Commissioner, Syed Fakhruddin Hamid (IAS), Baramulla Police ASP Neha Jain (IPS), and Additional Deputy Commissioner Altaf Hussain Musvi (KAS) to the event. These officers met the children, understood their problems, and promised support through government schemes.

The Deputy Commissioner said that a nation that prioritizes education cannot be defeated, and on this occasion, Human Aid Society reaffirmed its role as a bridge between the administration and the public, ensuring every child gets a chance at education and dreams. Furthermore,

Human Aid Society has not only worked in education but has taken up many charitable initiatives over these 29 years. While some other charitable efforts have international funding, the education program runs solely on local funds. Thanks to these efforts, many sponsored children have become doctors, engineers, teachers, and successful in other fields, making us proud that the donations have been used effectively.
